

JNO. P. BARRETT, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 5, 1879.

Foster's majority over Ewing in Ohio is officially reported at 17,129 and his majority over all is 3,855.

The election for State officers in New York took place yesterday. At the hour of going to press we are not advised of the result.

We have been convinced long ago that Urey Woodson can't possibly increase the size of himself, but he should certainly increase the dimensions of his Echo.—Henderson News.

The printing material heretofore used by the Marion Press has been bought by parties living in Dixon, Webster county, where it will be moved and a Greenback paper published. This scheme is backed by Judge C. W. Cook, the late Greenback candidate for Governor, who will, if any one could, make it a success.—Henderson Echo.

Mr. JAMES N. BANKS, of Henderson, former editor of the Reporter, will assist Capt. T. D. Marcum in editing the new paper to be published at Catlettsburg, Ky., to be known as the "Boyd County Democrat". Marcum and Banks will make a strong team. We wish them the success they so richly deserve.

A man addresses extensively in the Herald, by the name of E. Small. Of course he asks small profits.—Henderson News.

Of course he does and he always gets what he asks. He understands the philosophy of business. Liberal advertising, quick sales, small profits and business success.

The Union Democrat, published at Morgantown, Union county, Ky., is a new candidate for public favor. It is a four page seven column paper, published weekly by Miller & Cannon with W. A. Miller as business manager, at $1.50 per annum. Judging from the initial number, we think it merits success, which we hope it may obtain.

Among those favorably mentioned as prospective candidates for Commonwealth's Attorney in this district is Mr. W. R. Haynes, of Litchfield. Unless an Ohio county man should be his opponent, Mr. Haynes will carry a large vote in this county. He has many friends here who would support him in the race.

The coal interest in this county is booming. The mines are all actively at work to supply the temporary demand at Louisville. The McHenry Coal Company shipped 500 cars in October. The tender, which is one of the largest and finest mines on the rail road has started up and if everything works smooth we think it will result in a permanent increase of the coal trade. Mr. McHenry tells us that his object is, during the temporary demand, to try to increase the general annual run of coal more than to realize money by the high prices.

The Illustrious Dead.

Maj. Gen. Joseph Hooker, died at the Garden City Hotel, Long Island, October 31. Joseph Hooker was born in 1813, graduated at West Point in 1837, served in the Florida war and in the war with Mexico, during which war he was engaged in several important battles and won rapid promotion. In 1853 he retired from the army and became a farmer in California. He re-entered the service at the beginning of the war of the rebellion and figured prominently until its close. He filled many important stations and fought in some of the famous battles. The battles of Williamsburg, Fair Oaks, Fredericksburg and Malvern Hill, also the second battle of Bull Run, Chancellorsville, South Mountain and Antietam. From these and other engagements he earned the name of fighting Joe Hooker. But he has fought his last battle and gone to his long home where battles and cannon are no more. Requiescat in pace.

Jacob Abbott, the well known author and historian, died at his home in Farmington, Maine, October 31st, aged 76 years. He was educated at Bowdoin College and at the Theological seminary at Andover. His was a useful and happy life; he chose not the trade of the warrior, but that of the educator; and his memory will ever be one of sweet and grateful remembrance.

Hon' Zach Chandler was found dead last Saturday morning. He had made a vigorous campaign speech the night before at Chicago and retired, giving orders to be called up at 7 o'clock to take the train for his home in Detroit, Mich. When the call was made, however, he was found to be dead in his bed. Mr. Chandler had served several terms in the United States Senate and has been a leader in the Republican party since its organization. His party lost a strong man. Mr. Chandler had earned a large fortune in commercial pursuits before entering public life.

A Successful Year.

The year 1879 will pass into American history as a year of wonderful agricultural prosperity. The cotton crop is larger by half a million bales than ever before, the tobacco crop 12,000,000 greater, and the sugar crop exceeds by some 300,000 bags all previous yields. These are crops which belong almost exclusively to the Southern half of the republic. In behalf of the Northern States the excess of this year's products over the crops of any previous year is, according to the Chicago Journal of Commerce, 20,000,000 bushels of wheat and from 80,000,000 to 100,000,000 bushels of corn. The hog crop also is larger this year than for a number of years past—if it be not the largest ever raised.

Officers of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky Odd Fellows.

LOUISVILLE, October 26. The L. O. O. F. grand lodge of Kentucky elected the following officers: Past Grand James M. Hines of Bowling Green, was chosen G. M.; Past Grand W. H. Holt of Mt. Sterling, Deputy G. M.; Past Grand J. M. Bigger of Paducah, grand warrent; Past Grand Wm. White, of Louisville, grand secretary; Past Grand Master, G. W. Morris, of Louisville, Grand Representative.

The grand encampment met and elected the following officers: M. W. G. Parrish, R. F. Harrison, G. H. Priest, W. S. Giltner, J. S. Warden, William Reinecker, G. J. Warren, L. Stone, G. Secretary, Wm. White, G. Treasurer, G. W. Morris, G. Representative, H. L. Newell, of Maysville.

Nobly Said.

Gov. Blackburn has taken occasion, recently, to pardon juvenile convicts sent to the penitentiary. The humanity of this course is sufficient to shield him from serious criticism. That mere boys—boys yet entitled to the control and guidance of a parent—should be incarcerated in a dirty prison, and made the companions of veterans in crime, is revolting. It may be seriously questioned whether by such incarceration, our Government is not causing more harm than such offenders can possibly be guilty of.

Crime should be prevented in young men. But criminals have rights which a just and paternal Government cannot afford to ignore. Excessive punishments are not justified either in law or morals. The incarceration of a mere boy in the penitentiary for any ordinary offense is excessive. His punishment is greater than that of an adult criminal, because he has less fortitude to endure it, and his results are more calamitous. Let the boy be punished as a boy, and the man punished as a man. Equalize things. Do not punish the willful, reckless, misguidedly the same as the hardened veteran in crime. The civilization of this age demands reform in this respect. Let the incoming Legislature give this subject their thoughtful consideration. The Executive will not doubt direct its attention to it, and co-operate with its efforts. Schools of reform, or a separate prison, may serve the purpose. The prospect of saving a single boy from irretrievable ruin and disgrace—of rescuing one young soul from infamy, and bringing it back to a better life will justify any effort of expenditure.—Owensboro Examiner.

PERSONAL.

Miss Sallie Gentry, of Francisco, Ind., is visiting the editor's family.

Mr. Joshua Tinsley, living near Becla, has added a curiosity to our cabinet in the shape of a twin gourd.

Mr. W. A. Park, living near Greenville, gave us a call last Saturday and had his name enrolled on our subscription book.

Mr. W. J. Cockrell, representing the wholesale house of C. C. Bickel & Co., was in town last week the guest of the Hartford House.

Mr. W. C. Morton and wife, who have been absent for about ten days visiting relatives in Breckenridge county, returned home last Sunday.

Mrs. Monin and Mr. and Mrs. John Fuqua, of Daviess county, spent several days in town last week, the guests of Prof. Malcolm McIntyre and family.

Mr. George Middleton, traveling agent for Dr. James Graves & Son, passed through this place last week on the annual round. He visited our sanatorium while here.

Mr. G. C. Simmons, commercial tourist for the wholesale stationary house of Poundsford & Co., spent several days in town last week the guest of the Hartford House.

Miss Loga Walker, daughter of Hon. E. D. Walker, left last Wednesday for Brandenburg, where she will remain for several weeks, the guest of Miss Alice Wimp.

Messrs. John W. and S. Kenton Barrett, of Daviess county, sons of James Wesley Barrett, and cousins of the editors of this paper, were in town last week. They visited our office while here.

Our young friend, Oliver King, has accepted a position in the United States Mail Service, and will run on the L. & N. Railroad. Mr. King is an energetic, thorough-going young man, and merits all he may get in the way of Governmental preferment.

Mr. W. H. Moore returned home last Wednesday, after an absence of two weeks. After the session of the Masonic Grand Lodge was over, he visited Mr. J. B. Chapman and other friends in Lebanon, and also visited Washington county.

Miss Lizzie English, an amiable, unassuming and interesting young lady, who has been visiting the family of her aunt, Mrs. E. D. Walker, of this place, for about four weeks past, returned to her home in Elizabethtown, last Wednesday evening. Her departure leaves an aching void in the hearts of many of our young gentlemen.

Mr. Wm. Paris, of Buford, brought us a large fine sweet potato last week which is the result of a mixture of the red-gam and the old fashioned little string yellow potato. The new seems to be an improvement on either or both of its parents. It is a good idea for farmers to experiment in this way for it sometimes leads to valuable discoveries.

Armistead Jones, Esq., one of Hartford's gallant young attorneys, spent Sunday last in Litchfield. Circuit Court was in session and Mr. Jones had a case in "chancery". It is not fully known what his chances are. The ordinary rules of civil suits have been suspended in this case. Judge Stuart retired to permit a Bishop to preside. We hope Mr. Jones may be successful in his pleadings.

CALHOUN, Nov. 3, 1879.

Things have just about straightened out again since our late fair. Health of the community remarkably good, a few cases are reported. L. W. Gates, Esq., is finishing up his new and fine law office, which will be when finished, a decided improvement to the east side of Ferry street. Mr. John Master is erecting an addition to his already commodious carpenter's and undertaker's establishment. Our Court House was finished last week by contractors Robinson & Silvers, with two new wings of paint on the outside, that adds materially to its appearance.

George W. Tiehen has just completed a new and large Livery Stable and barn. Something we badly needed.

The Green & Barrett River Navigation Company are making extensive and expensive improvements on the Rumsey locks, opposite Catlettsburg. Navigation has been partially suspended on Green River for some time, on account of the condition of the locks, but we hope things will be all right again soon.

Our October Court of Claims was held at the usual place, and most of the counties, so far as heard from, allowing our County Judge and County Attorney each five hundred dollars for their services the past year.

Dr. King, formerly of Delaware, Ky., has accepted a position with Mr. Frank Livers, one of our prominent druggists. He comes well recommended, and our citizens are glad to have him with us. Look out for an "exodus" up your way from this section very soon. Several of our boys, your correspondent believes, were "struck" with the influenza, and the beauty of the Hartford young ladies that attended our fair, and speak of coming up your way at an early date.

Capt. John A. Robinson, Superintendent Green & Barrett River Navigation Company, has been in town several days, attending to the Company's interests in the repairs, etc., that are being done on the Rumsey locks.

Evidently Mr. Lyuegus Barrett, "ve Local of the Hartford Herald," is in love with some of our Modest beauties, or he wouldn't say so many sweet things about them in his paper. Write us a private letter, Cuz, and tell us all about it, we promise to keep it.

Greenville Gleanings.

The Prof. became fearfully and wonderfully mad, and accused me of telling a malicious lie. And then he went on to say that the rule which I had reported, and furthermore said that the Trustees had modified the rule against his wish, by which the rule was declared to be in force until the next day. He also introduced the certificate of his brother-in-law to prove that what I had written was true, and that the witness had told me that it was true. But he says he was only joking. I cannot tell which time he is joking. I regard it as the best joke of the season for the Prof. to accuse me of lying and then prove that I did not lie. Thanks Prof. for your complete confession and for vindicating me from the charge of lying on your part. As to the personal attack on Herald, I have decided against publishing personal abuse, and I only wish to tell an anecdote of a little boy-tailed, bench-legged dog, which had a habit of barking at the moon. The dog would bark himself hoarse and scratch the ground in rage, every time he saw the moon; and the moon shone on, and was never known to stop a moment on account of the barking of the dog. "Shoo fly, don't bother me!"

POOR NECK, KY., Oct. 30.

I Mean What I Say.

Those owing me for work can have a chance during Circuit Court to settle it with me. Those who defer it longer, will find their notes and accounts in the hands of a collecting officer.

A Live Pig.

Such is I. Pig Barnard. He has recently bought one-half of the Taylor Coal Mines, and is getting out and shipping coal pretty lively. We visited his store at Beaver Dam, last Saturday, and found it crowded with customers, and every salesman busy. We also visited the mines, and found that he is doing a lively business there selling goods, mining coal, &c. He is a practical, liberal business man, and richly merits the success attending him. Oh, for a few more such men in the county.

Dead Again.

Sampson Kaykendall, of color, near Morgantown, died last week. He and another negro man had been on a spree for some time when Sampson died suddenly. The colored folks believe that Sampson was poisoned but the white people think that the effects of the whisky killed him. The other negro has fled which looks suspicious.

Don't Begin to be Old.

A Frochman said he hated a girl who tried to be a woman and a woman who tried to be a girl. Our children, especially the girls, are forced too much for an early market. We long to be old when we are young, and young when we are old. Our girls are a little too fast in stepping on the platform of womanhood. This coercion entails a suspension or retention of natural secretions, which if not attended to promptly, is attended with headache, loss of appetite, constipation, pains in the side and back, palpitation of the heart, swimming of the head, cold feet and hands, they lose the bloom of the cheek and the lustre of the eye, become dejected, feeble and emaciated. If in this condition you can be restored at once by the use of English Female Bitters, the only known female restorer before the public.

BAILEY'S SALINE APERTENT.

This article has grown into rapid favor with the people—the masses, and very justly so, because the proprietors were liberal enough to offer it at one-half the price such articles had been heretofore selling at. It is placed at 50 cents per bottle so that the poor as well as the rich could afford to use so potent and pleasant medicine. It is a charming purgative, well adapted to summer use, as it cools the system, cleanses the stomach, opens the bowels and unlocks the liver, while it is one of the most pleasant beverages in use. For the immediate cure of sick headache, heartburn, etc., it has no equal.

DEAFNESS IN CHILDREN.

Thousands of parents administer quinine to their children in such quantities as to produce deafness, dimness of vision, pain in the head and a general prostration of the whole nervous system. This practice in many cases proves pernicious, and a more pleasant and effective remedy is now available. The article is Day's Aque Tonic, which never fails to make permanent cures.

Good Brick for Sale.

We have about 100,000 good brick for sale on the premises of L. A. W. Carson, 31 miles from Hartford near No Creek church. Will sell them at a reasonable price.

Almost Young Again.

"My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy, inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family."—A lady in Providence, R. I.

Important to Lady Teachers.

Below will be found some valuable hints to lady school teachers, as copied from the Boston Educator: First. All lady teachers, especially those in the country, should supply themselves with a pair of soft heavy upper genuine goat—heavy bottom shoes, a pair of late improved wool leggings, an oil silk cloak, with hood attachment, which covers the entire form from head to feet, and a pair of arctic overshoes. This will protect health and save doctor bills. The entire outfit may be had for a very small sum, at Anderson's Bazaar. Send for prices.

Geo. Will Bennett.

This poor, unfortunate being is again in trouble. He was held over last Thursday to keep the peace and gave bond. On Monday morning last he drew a pistol on Taylor Baird on the levy, and Baird had him arrested for carrying concealed weapons. He was held by Judge Cummins in bond to answer the charge at next Criminal Court. He failed to give the bond and was lodged in jail. The jailer searched him before confining him, and found a large knife and pistol in his boot-leg. The poor fellow is crazy, and the sooner the Courts come down to facts and throw away technicalities, the better it will be for the poor being and the community in which he lives.

AS AN ANTI-BILIOUS MEDICINE

They are incomparable. They stimulate the "BILIOUS LIVER," invigorate the NERVOUS SYSTEM, and give tone to the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, creating perfect digestion and thorough assimilation of food. They exert a powerful influence on the KIDNEYS and LIVER, and through these organs remove all impurities, thus vitalizing the tissues of the body and causing a healthy condition of the system.

AS AN ANTI-MALARIAL REMEDY

They have no equal; and as a result act as a preventive and cure for Bilious, Remittent, Intermittent, Typhoid Fever, and Fever and Ague. Upon the healthy action of the stomach, depends, almost wholly, the health of the human race.

Educational Column.

The Common School Law.
No. 1.
During the late session of the Teachers' Institute of Hardin county quite a number of teachers from different parts of the county expressed a desire to hear me expound the school law. This I was not permitted to do. I can only avail myself of your kind offer to allow me to appear in the State of this subject. This paper is the introduction.

The items and figures below are furnished by Hon. D. Howard Smith, State Auditor.

WHITE SCHOOL, FUND.

Amount of revenue, 20 cents
Interest on School Bonds	$808,232.38
From State of Kentucky	100,442.00
From Commercial Bank of Kentucky	2,500.00
From Farmers' Bank of Ky.	7,000.00
From Farmers' and Drovers' Bank	1,000.00
From Bank of Shelbyville	900.00
From Bank on Billiards	2,500.00
From tax on Dogs	1,200.00
From Sheriff, etc.	30,000.00

Total $1,084,575.37

EXPENSES TO BE DEDUCTED.

Sheriff's Commission, etc.	$800,000.00
Unpaid School Drafts	45,000.00
Over Drafts	25,720.00

Total $100,720.20

Total amount of estimated receipts to the 1st July, 1879, $983,855.08

As the amount to paid officers is not in the above estimate we will supply, and provide in advance more teachers, if the amount to be disbursed in the year 1879 is $923,855.08, we think it safe to conclude that in the year 1879 it is not more than $900,000.00.

Let us deduct from that the amount of paid officers' salaries. We know the exact figures in some cases, and give them in other cases we can give only an approximate. The salaries of the 117 Commissioners are $3,000.00 per annum. He is allowed two clerks, 1,200.00 dollars the other 200 - $3,000.00. I think it safe to conclude that the salary of the 117 Commissioners is $350,000.00 per annum. He is allowed two clerks, 1,200.00 dollars the other 200 - $3,000.00. I think it safe to conclude that the salary of the 117 Commissioners is $350,000.00 per annum.

Many of them ought to be styled Do Little Commissioners. Do much or do little, they are paid about $3,000.00 per annum. Sheriff's fees for collecting the taxes may be less than $200.00. Total, $350,000.00. This is the amount consumed between the taxpayer and the pupil. The paid officers are all necessary to work the Common School system. Whether they receive too much or too little is a question about which you may talk as much as you like. I do not think it is more than he ought to have, if he would do the work of his office as the law requires. But, one class of paid officers, certainly, do little compared with what they ought to do. Commissioners are allowed $3,000.00 for each school they visit. Many of them do not visit ten schools in any one year, yet they get the money. JAMES VINSON, Ex-Com. of Hardin county, -Elizabethan News.

OUR COMMON SCHOOL SYSTEM.
There are 117 school Commissioners in the State who receive $3,000.00 yearly for their services. The total amount of money disbursed on these common schools of the State is about $900,000.00 yearly. These Commissioners average over $3,000.00 salary each, or 5 per cent. of the entire fund; for which they give on an average about ten days work. Very good wages for these hard times. Our next Legislature would do well to look into the matter. The Trigg Democrat, a level headed, bold and independent journal has hit the nail somewhere about the head and comes to the front with some timely advice. Judge Wilkinson, the editor of that paper, who is a member of the Senate from that district and who honors the position, has just publicly expressed himself on the expensively conducted common school system as follows:

An examination into the practical workings of our common school system shows that there is too heavy a drain upon it in the way of salaries. In the first place there is a State Superintendent with a salary of $8,000.00, and one clerk who draws the salary of $1,000.00; there are 117 Commissioners who receive an annual salary of $3,000.00 each. In addition to this they are allowed the sum of $100.00 for each district and one per cent. on all the funds received and disbursed. There are 5,000 districts in the State, which at $3 each will aggregate the sum of $15,000.00. To this add the annual salaries of 117 Commissioners at $3,000 each, and we have the further sum of $11,700.00. The amount is further swelled by the percentage on the total school fund received and disbursed; one per cent. on $900,000, making $9,000.00 additional. A summary shows:

One Superintendent	3,000
One Clerk	1,000
117 Commissioners, at 100	11,700
5,000 School districts at 3.00	15,000
Percentage on $900,000	9,000
Add expenses printing reports, etc.	10,000

Total expenses, $49,700. It will be seen that the annual expenses of the system are over five per cent. of the fund. This is too heavy a drain upon the educational resources of the State. A machine that uses one twentieth of its power by friction, and defies correction is too costly for practical purposes. A school system that requires an expenditure of five per cent. of its resources needs revision and amendment. The school fund is appropriated for the benefit of the children of the State; it belongs to them and not to a rapacious set of office holders. It will be the duty of the next Legislature to apply the knife to these high salaries and cut them down severely. A salary of 2,000 dollars will secure the best talent in the State in the office of Superintendent. This will give a saving of about $2,000 dollars. Repeal the law allowing commissioners three dollars for each district, which is a gross and unnecessary allowance. Let the duty be imposed on the County Court Clerk to receive the census reports of schools, taught, draw his warrants on the Superintendent for the amount, and disburse the same; and for these services allow him one per cent. on the amount so received and paid out. The enactment of these laws would save to the school fund 11,700 paid in the way of salaries to commissioners. There is not a clerk in the State who would not willingly perform these duties for the compensation mentioned.

How much would be saved to the children of the State by the proposed reduction? The following figures will show:

Superintendent reduction	2,000
5,000 districts at $3 each	15,000
117 Commissioners at $100 each	11,700
Reduce expenses of printing	5,000

Total amount saved $33,500

Farm Notes.

TEXAS has 3,674,000 sheep.

THERE is a pumpkin vine on Mrs. Williamson's farm in this county, that measures sixty feet in length, and has thirty-one full developed pumpkins on it. This is touched by many of the citizens of the county, who have seen the vine. -Jackson Tex. Whig.

THE MORNING IN KENTUCKY. -A correspondent writing from Hartford, Ohio, Ky., October 17, says: "The Merino is the coming sheep in these parts. The Rumsey woolen mills pay for Merino wool, and are unable to fill their orders for goods made from it." -Farmers' Home Journal.

"You ask for a statement about bran as a fertilizer. I had a tired piece of corn land which did not produce over five barrels of corn per acre the year before I put it in wheat. I used one thousand pounds of bran per acre, at a cost of five dollars per acre, on five acres which yielded twenty-nine bushels per acre. I used $5 worth of ground bone per acre on five acres; it produced twenty bushels per acre. On five acres, no fertilizer was used; I got five bushels per acre."

MERINO RAM SOLD. -Captain T. E. Moore, Shawhan, Ky., shipped to V. D. D. Stevens, of Ohio, a fine Merino ram, 17, a very fine yearling, Spanish Merino ram. The sire of this ram sheared 23 lbs. at 10 months' growth of fleece, and this one, the Captain says, is the equal of the sire, or will be when three years old. So Mr. Stevens has a good ram. He is to be used to cross on well bred native sheep. The wool is said to be of the best quality, and any in the market. -Farmers' Home Journal.

SALT AND BRAN AS FERTILIZERS. -Mr. D. J. Williams, Jr., one of Woodford county's best farmers, in a letter to the Bluegrass Upper, says: "I have used salt and bran, from two to three bushels per acre, quite beneficial to both wheat and barley. I had two acres and one-quarter of wheat, on tired heavy land, on which I sowed three bushels of salt in March, per acre, off of which I got one hundred and thirty-one bushels of wheat; it was Fultz wheat. I also used salt on barley with marked advantage, both in yield of grain, quantity and color."

PROFITS IN SHEEP BREEDING. -A correspondent of the Mt. Sterling (Ky.) Democrat states that in 1866, E. and C. Brown, having entered into an agreement to buy 15 good Cotswold ewes, continue the partnership 10 years, retain the ewe lambs and sell the wool and make sheep each year. The original 15 ewes cost them $135 cash. July 15, 1876 they had sold $4,800 worth of wool and sheep; last year they sold $1,500 worth of wool, and now they have on hand 100 head of sheep that $2,000 - about buy. The net amount of $10,110, realized by 12 ewes and their progeny, is equal to lending money at nearly the astonishing rate of 630 per cent. per annum.

HYDROPHOBIA CURED. -Foreign papers give an account of a case of canine hydrophobia successfully treated with oxygen. The case occurred in Paris. A girl twelve years old was bitten by a dog. The wound was cauterized, but a fortnight afterwards hydrophobic symptoms were manifested. The Russian physicians, Dr. Schmitt and Ledebent, were called. They caused the patient to inhale three cubic feet of oxygen, in the course of an hour and a half, when the symptoms disappeared. They returned on the following day with renewed violence. The treatment was renewed, and in forty-five minutes the attack subsided, and there has never been any return of the malady.

MILKING. -The faster and more gently a cow is milked, the greater will be the amount given. Slow milkers always gradually dry up a cow, and for the reason that if the milk is not drawn out as fast as it is given down, it will be reabsorbed by the body, and that which is known as a matter of course what is called as the strappings - in fact, the upper surface of the milk in the udder. Many milkers strain the milk by the strainer downward pull, in fact with a jerk. This should never be allowed; it irritates the cow, and often injures the bag. Fill the test, and with a firm pressure of the hand three fingers only, drawing slightly on the test and udder at the same time; so proceed alternately with each hand until the milk supply is exhausted. Many milkers, by the habit of slow milking, because steady, firm, quick milking tires the fingers and wrists, until by practice the muscles get used to the work. Until this use comes naturally, the individual should only milk such a number as he can without severe cramping of the hands; what is milked should be milked fast, increasing the number until at last he is able to milk whatever. Five minutes is about the limit that should be allowed for milking a cow. There is another thing well worthy of being remembered. Cows should be milked as nearly as possible, since undue distention of the udder is always injurious. -Prairie Farmer.

A DIALOGUE UPON FARMING. Characters, Dr. Verry Sharp and Mr. Softly Green.

Dr. Sharp. Why, I take a good agricultural paper, where the different methods and views are discussed and views interchanged.

Green. Yes, just as I expected. I want have nothing to do with them that blasted white shirt men, what sets up in editors chair, and depends on ritten us how to farm. I tell you doctor, its all wrong and we grangers will starve them air fellers outen' them paper offices.

We have resolved not to support a middle man or a middle woman in this ere county. See what a party case it is now. There is many as two dozen men now in this county, what don't do a darned thing but teach skule, and we air willing to stop that. And now them air editors shall come down to the lo and spade. We shant support 'em any more.

Dr. S. Well, neighbor Green, I am sorry indeed that you speak in such a way. The world is ever moving on, and we must move with it or be left. The man who does not farm on a scientific principle, cannot hope to make money or live easy. He may drag along in a way; but sir, I would not taken small farm for what I have learned from agricultural papers. These paper men, as you call them, are men who devote their time and a great deal of hard labor to collecting facts upon the science of agriculture. They observe the most successful methods of farming, and the most valuable crops - and the different localities and varieties of soil adapted to the cultivation of the various crops, and thus secure to the benefit of the experience of the past. And it is the best investment any man can make, to take the local paper, and also a good agricultural paper.
